STAT

[Redacted]

Since I wrote to you on 29 March, appropriate Agency officials have been reviewing your qualifications in light of our current and anticipated vacancies. Unfortunately, we have not been able to locate a position which would be commensurate with your background and experience. This is no reflection on your abilities but rather because our vacancies are very limited due to reductions in our personnel strength.

We will keep your application in our active files in the event that a suitable position should develop in the near future.

Your interest is appreciated and we regret that our response could not be favorable.

Sincerely,

/s/Harry B. Fisher
